TO THE FRIENDS AND PATRONS

__ OF __

Hall's Addition Nursery Company.

The partnership which constituted the firm known as Hall's Addition Nursery Co., has recently been dissolved, and I have purchased the entire business, which will continue under the old name.

Annie M. Cummins, partner, and L. C. Cummins, manager, having retired, and being no longer connected with the business in any capacity.

I assume all liabilities, and all accounts due the firm will be paid to me.

I send you this preliminary price list, hastily prepared, in response to numerous calls for our fall catalogue, and, while it sets forth a few of the leading varieties we have on hand, we shall issue later, probably about the first of December, a complete catalogue of our large variety of deciduous trees, which are strong and vigorous and in splendid condition for this season's planting. Also a fine assortment of roses and ornamental shrubbery, all grown at our own nurseries,

If you are in need of anything in my line, do not infer it is not in the yard because it is not named in this price list, but let me hear from you, and I will endeavor to supply your needs.

Thanking you for your patronage in the past, and hoping you will give me an opportunity to serve you in the future, I remain

Yours Respectfully

PRIESTLEY HALL.
